

LitHouses

in association with:

Zoom Video Communications

17th Annual Conference

“The Wit and Wisdom of The LitHouses Group”

Friday 13th November 2020

via Zoom

Programme:

11:00 Welcome & Introduction

The LitHouses Group - Update from Members

- 1 min update
- 1 thing we learnt this terrible year that we have benefitted from
- 1 min on favourite object in our collection (on camera)
- 1 story in our house tour guaranteed to get a laugh / or bust a favourite myth

13:00 Break

14:30 The LitHouses Group - Update from Members - continued

15:30 “Ways for LitHouses to use digital on a budget”

Simon Brown - Curator, Newstead Abbey

Throughout lockdown, many museums and public institutions have directed attention to continuing engagement online. Many of these methods have been highly effective, using free tools that are widely available. We will discuss examples from the museums sector and beyond, and consider how literary houses can benefit.

16:00 Questions & General Discussion

16:30 Finish

Protocols:

- LitHouses Members only
- No limit on Member delegates (but please pre-register all attendees)
- One camera turned on per LitHouse. All audio muted unless speaking
- Challenge to have the best branded Zoom background - either inserted or live

RSVP required (by 30th September) - henry@knebworthhouse.com

www.lithouses.org